
FOOD STUFF

Florence Fabricant

Dial-a-Challah: From Bakery to Doorstep

A shiny, braided challah is a necessity on Friday evenings for those celebrating the Jewish sabbath. It also makes delicious French toast. Now there is a way to get this sweet bread delivered to your door. The Challah Connection of Westport, Conn., delivers from Maine to Washington, D.C. The excellent challahs, weighing more than a pound, are from a kosher bakery in Monsey, N.Y. They come in plain, cinnamon, raisin, chocolate chip and honeyed whole wheat versions, and are delivered fresh by 5 p.m. every Friday by a newspaper service or express mail. Among the goods the company also sells are rugelach, babka, cookies and Russian coffee cake. Challah delivery is $32.99 for four weeks, $59.99 for eight weeks and $109.99 for 16 weeks in parts of Fairfield County, Conn. Elsewhere, it's $38.99, $73.99 and $139.99. For information: www.challahconnection.com. Orders can be placed with (866) 242-5524.

Peter Hoey